-----X
On November 6, 2020, the Court “So Ordered” a Stipulation of Settlement and Order for Distribution of Interpleader Funds (the “Stipulation and Order”), which, among other things, directed the Clerk to distribute $68,680.70 in interpleader funds to the United States. (Doc. #48). Pursuant to the Stipulation and Order, those interpleader funds were to be distributed by check made payable to the United States Treasury and mailed to the attention of the Assistant United States Attorney appearing on behalf of the United States in this action. Pursuant to the Stipulation and Order, the Internal Revenue Service was to apply these funds to the outstanding tax liabilities of interpleader defendants Norman and Ellen Clancy for tax years 2013, 2015, and 2016.

On December 23, 2020, the Clerk of Court disbursed the interpleader funds to the United States by issuing a check (dated December 11, 2020, and numbered 4039-20082018) payable to the United States Treasury in the amount of $68,680.70.

On June 8, 2021, Mr. Clancy repeatedly called Chambers and belligerently told the Court's staff that the Internal Revenue Service had not received the above-referenced check.

Accordingly, it is HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. By June 23, 2021, counsel for the United States shall submit a letter to the Court, which shall also be filed on the ECF docket, stating whether he received the above-referenced check, and whether the Internal Revenue Service has applied the interpleader funds to Norman and Ellen Clancy's outstanding tax liabilities for the tax years 2013, 2015, and 2016 in accordance with the Stipulation and Order. If the interpleader funds have not been so applied, the letter shall explain why that has not occurred. Counsel for the United States is directed to serve a copy of that letter on Norman and Ellen Clancy by overnight mail.

2. Norman Clancy shall not call or otherwise contact Chambers by telephone. Any future communication from Mr. Clancy related to this case shall be submitted in writing, and shall be mailed to the Pro Se Intake Unit at the below address:
